Proposed Amendments to the Bylaws of the Robotics & Automation Society

December 2003

Amendments have been grouped in three categories:

- Italic: minor impact, formal due modifications, no major discussion needed, minor amendments of C&B
- Bold: medium impact, they require some discussion, minor o no amendment of the Constitution
- Bold Underlined: major impact, they require extensive discussion, major amendments of the Constitution and of the Bylaws

Exact Wording of Proposed Amendments to the Bylaws for:

- Changes due to the birth of the Transactions ASE and rename of Transactions RO
- Changes due to the replacement of the words ‘Chairman/Chairmen’ and ‘Chairperson/s’ with the words ‘Chair/s’
- Changes due to the limitation of the eligibility of Technical Committee Chairs up to three consecutive two-year terms (six consecutive years in total). No limitations currently apply.
- Changes due to the elevation of the AdCom quorum from 10 to 13
- Changes due to the reinforcement of common nomenclature of VPs, Boards and Committees by using the standard words ‘ACTIVITIES’ and ‘NOMINATIONS’
- Changes due to the provision for an Annual General Assembly (Town Hall Meeting) to be called by the President
- Changes due to the appointment of a Student AdCom member. The Chair of the Student Activities Standing Committee shall be ex-officio AdCom member with vote
- Changes due to the need for explicit reinstatements of voting privileges of elected and ex-officio members of the AdCom, and of the requirement of their physical presence to a meeting for voting
- Changes due to the definition of the Nominations Committee Chair and membership
- Changes due to the definition of the Advisory Committee Chair
- Changes due to the definition of the Awards and Fellow Nomination Committee Chair
- Changes due to the establishment of a new Vice-President for Industrial Activities and of an Industrial Activities Board (IAB)
- Changes due to the definition of the duties of the Treasurer
- Changes due to the establishment of a Parliamentarian Officer to be appointed by the President as an ex-officio member of the AdCom without vote
- Changes due to the restructuring of the Technical Committees by introducing a default ‘sunset clause’ after four years, and by limiting the TC chairs eligibility to three consecutive terms (6 years in total)
- Changes due to extension from one to two years of the term for Standing Committee Chairs
- Changes due to enforce geographical distribution of the AdCom membership.
- Changes due to the provision that no elected AdCom members shall serve during the same term on the Executive Committee
- Changes due to the introduction of a two consecutive term limit (four years) of service in the ExCom, and to the provision that at least one of the Vice-Presidents-Elect shall have never served before on the Executive Committee

Modifications in the Bylaws are consequently necessary as follows.
Article II – ELECTIONS

Section 1.

Current wording:
Nominations Committee --- On or before April 1 of each year, the President shall appoint, with the approval of the Administrative Committee (AdCom), a Nominations Committee which shall consist of a Chair (usually the Past President) and three or more members of the Society, and not more than half of which may be members of the AdCom.

Proposed amended version:
Nominations Committee --- On or before April 1 of each year, the President shall appoint, with the approval of the Administrative Committee (AdCom), a Nominations Committee which shall consist of five Society members, its Chair being the Junior Past President and at least one other member being an AdCom member.

Article II – ELECTIONS

Section 5.

Current wording:
Election of Officers --- Before or about May 31 the incumbent AdCom shall hold a meeting to elect the President-Elect and the five Vice-Presidents. At this meeting the Nominating Committee shall submit to the AdCom at least one nominee for each of these offices. Other candidates may be nominated. A plurality of votes shall elect. The AdCom may make contingent elections to be effective in case an elected member fails to accept the office or a disapproval is received from the IEEE. The names of the elected officers shall be reported to the Chairman and to the Secretary of the IEEE Technical Activities Board.

Proposed amended version:
Election of Officers --- Before or about May 31 during the second year of service of the incumbent President, the incumbent AdCom shall hold a meeting to elect the President-Elect. Before or about May 31 during the first year of service of the incumbent President-Elect, the incumbent AdCom shall hold a meeting to elect all the Vice-Presidents-Elect. At these meetings the Nominations Committee shall submit to the AdCom at least one nominee for each of these offices. Other candidates may be nominated. A plurality of votes shall elect. The AdCom may make contingent elections to be effective in case an elected member fails to accept the office or a disapproval is received from the IEEE. The names of the elected officers shall be reported to the Chairman and to the Secretary of the IEEE Technical Activities Board.

Article II – ELECTIONS

Section 6.

Current wording:
Principles of Selection --- The Nominating Committee, in its nominations, and the AdCom, in its elections, shall be guided in their selections of candidates by the principles of demonstrated or potential ability and by other factors which may be relevant, such as geographical distribution and the academic, governmental, and industrial distribution of the candidates.

Proposed amended version:
Principles of Selection --- The Nominations Committee, in its nominations, and the AdCom, in its elections, shall be guided in their selections of candidates by the principles of demonstrated or potential ability and by other factors which may be relevant, such as geographical distribution (Article IV, Section 1) and the academic, governmental, and industrial distribution of the candidates.
